Jogging:

- The Island offers several jogging paths such as the one behind Pacific Place shopping complex near Central District; this 8-hectare (20-acre) park has paths for early morning walking or jogging

Hiking:

Hiking is probably the most popular concealed activity in Hong Kong that allows perceiving Hong Kong from a different perspective with its incredible forests, wild isolated beaches, and stellar city views; Hong Kong possesses 300 km / 186 miles of designated trails that vary in length and difficulty

- Hong Kong Trail: With 50 km / 31 miles of walking routes through the five country parks on Hong Kong Island, the trail is incredibly scenic and consists of eight sections, each offering a variety of walks of different lengths and character
- MacLehose Stages 1 & 2: This 100 km / 62 mile long hiking trail across the New Territories is popular for the Oxfam Trail Walker race; the most beautiful tropical sections are stages one (10 km / 6.2 miles) and two (13 km / 8 miles) in Sai Kung and make this hike unforgettable with its beautiful ocean views
- Lantau Trail: The 70 km / 44 miles Lantau Trail, which crosses Lantau, is divided into 12 Sections; the top pick is Lantau Peak, which is with its 934 m / 3,064 ft the second highest peak in Hong Kong
- The Peak Circle Walk: High above the harbour one can combine a workout with sightseeing; the highest peak in Hong Kong offers intoxicating views at twilight when the skyscrapers' lights start glowing in the dark

Boating:

- Escape from the busy life of Hong Kong on a sailing boat , luxury cruisers, junk boat and others

Water Sports:

- The city offers water sport activities such as windsurfing, kayaking, standup paddle boarding (SUP), wakeboarding and more

Meetings, Special Events and Weddings

Function Space:

Ballrooms:

- Grand Ballroom: The ballroom (708 sq m / 7,620 sq ft) is equipped with built-in projection screens, and includes a pre-function area (250 sq m / 2,690 sq ft); caters up to 1,200 guests for a standing reception
- Harbour-View Ballroom: The Harbour View Ballroom lives up to its name with a view of Hong Kong's famous harbour; allows up to 500 guests for a standing reception, within a space of 456 sq m / 4,908 sq ft and the space is divisible into three smaller rooms featuring built-in projection screens
